

Computer Use - Additional Guidelines

Registration and Check-in

Patrons will use their library card number to access a computer. Library cards are non-transferable.

Computers for Children and Teens

All three Carlsbad libraries offer computers with internet access designated for children and teens. In order to use these computers, the following conditions apply:

- Parents are responsible for the terms of the Internet and Computer User Agreement whether accompanying their child or not.
- Children under the age of 13 must use the terminals in the children's area.
- Teens 13 to 17 may use the adult, teen or children's computers.
- Adults may use the children's internet computers if they are supervising a child in the children's area.

Equipment Use

Only library installed software and hardware may be used. Adding or deleting software is not permitted.

Closing

The computers shut down 10 minutes before the library closes.

Disclaimer

The library and its staff assume no responsibility for loss or damage to any data or USB drives arising from a patron's use of computers, library software or equipment. User assumes no right to privacy while using computers. The library assumes no responsibility and shall have no liability for any direct, indirect or consequential damages arising from the use of information found on the internet.
